OBJECTIVE

For an organisation to remain competitive, it is imperative for management to hire professionals who can deliver outstanding results.

Considering my education and experience, I'm confident that I have

Key skills & core competencies

Self-motivated and strong/independent decision-making qualities.

Keeping up an inquisitive and explorative attitude, which I believe, leads to a constant learning process.

The disciplined and organised way of working along with positive approach towards challenges.

Ability to prioritise workloads & control multiple tasks even in busy schedules.
